TEEX ICS300 Virtual Course Offering

Texas A&M Engineering Extension Service (TEEX) has provided Kansas Division of Emergency Management partners priority consideration in the pilot delivery of a Virtual ICS300 (Intermediate Incident Command System) at no cost to the participant. Course seating is limited, so please enroll ASAP as this course enrollment closes on December 30th. Participants are required to establish a myTEEX account, which is a very easy process. Following is the information provided by TEEX:

We have scheduled a pilot delivery of the ICS-300 online class for January 5-8th. I've got up to 25 available seats if you have students who can attend virtually. They must be signed up before 12/30.

Each student must have a computer with camera/audio capability to interact in the class. I copied the registration link and general class info. below. This is a NO COST delivery. Actual class times will be 0800-1700 CST on Jan. 6-8.

This is the new registration link for the class that will be held on January 5-8-2021. The link will be open until 2:00 pm 12/30/20

January 5 is admin/pretest day and the instructor led zoom class will start on January 6-8-2021.

You will receive a confirmation and information when you register for the class and a couple of days prior to the class you will get the detailed information on how to take the class and the pretest.

Computer requirements:

To participate in a Zoom Live Online Instructor-Led Training you will need the following:

- Computer or mobile device (Personal computer is highly encouraged due to the increased functionality for completing breakout activities)
- An internet connection – broadband wired or wireless (3G or 4G/LTE)
- Speakers and a microphone – built-in or USB plug-in or wireless Bluetooth
- A webcam or HD webcam - built-in or USB plug-in

NOTE: In order to have the best training experience, it is recommended that you use the Zoom application which you will be prompted to download.

Be sure to upload all completed certificates to your KS-Train account!
